Agreement Paint for Planet

- At Paint for Planet we help protect the rainforests through Rainforest Trust.
- By joining and uploading works you agree that Paint for Planet may sell these works.
- You can revoke the right for Paint for Planet to sell your works at any time.
- Paint for Planet may use images of your work for promotion and publication, provided that you are mentioned as the maker.
- By sending in your works you state that you are indeed the maker of these works.

- There are three categories of products on Paint for Planet: Prints, Limited Editions and Originals. In table 1 you'll find the distribution of percentages of the net revenue that will go to Rainforest Trust, you as a maker, and Paint for Planet.

- With Prints and Limited Editions, the amount donated to Rainforest Trust is 50% of the net revenue.
- For Original artworks the amount donated is equal to the cost of protecting one million times their surface area in rainforest on Rainforest Trust.
- Prints can be reproduced and sold by Paint for Planet according to the percentages stated in this agreement.
- Limited Editions & Originals remain with you until they are sold. Paint for Planet acts as a mediator in the sale.
- Limited Editions should be produced, numbered and signed by you.
- As soon as a Limited edition or an Original has been sold, Paint for Planet will notify you via email.

- As soon as you get notified that a work you still have in your possession has been sold, you are expected to send this within five working days to the customer.
- The shipping costs of the Limited Editions are estimated to be 10€ and are automatically added to the price on the website.
- Make sure you account for the shipping costs in the price you ask for your works.
